Tenement Dealing Remnins Active. Professional trading in flate and tenements continued yesterday to be the principal feature of activity in the brokerage ranch of the market. It wassconsiderable n volume and was widely distributed. The West Side was well represented. There was a moderate demand for private dwellings. No business property was dealt in. The Building Department's records, like The Building Department's records, like the property reflected the prevailing speculative activity in the cheaper grades of multi-family houses. The plans filed for new buildings calked for an expenditure of $491,000 for five and six story flats, as against $58,300 for other kinds of construction. Business in the auction room was limited to a bouple of forselosure sales of unimportant properties.

GRAF WALDERSEE'S HARD TRIP. Hamburg American Liner Storm Tossed

-Baby Born Aboard Ship. The big Hamburg-American liner Graf Waldersee came into port yesterday after a stiff fight with North Atlantic weather. A smashed boat or two and the genuine relief of the 2,000 passengers at getting on dry is nd were evidences of the buffeting the ship got on her trip from Hamburg. At midnight of Aug. 2 the Waldersee ran into a heavy gale from the south. Chief Officer Wreesmann described it as a "sain breeze." a tempest born of the meeting of hot air from the Southern waters and the cold currents of the north Atlantic. The tempes lasted from midnight of Aug. 2 to 8 oblock on the night of Aug. 3. Giant rollers swept over the bow and the ship rolled and tossed almost all the passengers into acute seasickness.

In the first and second cabins there were 357 passengers, and in the steerage 1,567 There wasn't much fun for them on the trip as they had to keep close below for two as they had to keep closs days.

On the second day of the storm Capt.
Krech ordered oil poured on the sea. Five pounds of oil was used, and the effect, the chief officer said, was magical. The oil spread instantly around the liner and ironed out the waves.

On the second day out from Boulogne a baby was born in the steerage. The

On the second day out from Boulogne a baby was born in the steerage. The mother was a girl from Russian Poland, Mary Ann (iaides. She told the ship's officers at first that she was on her way to Fall hiver. Wis., to meet three brothers, but after the baby appeared she said she expected to meet her husband here.

The cabin passengers took a lot of interest in the baby and made up a purse of $25 for the mother, besides collecting a trunkful of clothing for her. They named the baby Albert. The immigration officials sent the mother and child to Ellis Island to wait until her story could be investigated.

The ship's best day's run was on July 29, when she made 329 knots. The first day of the storm her speed was cut down to 139, knots.

PAPAL TEMPERANCE BRIEF. It Did Not Reach the C. T. A. U. Convention, but Is Coming.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 11.-The Papal brief on temperance, the first sent to this country by Pope Pius X., did not arrive in time to be read before the Catholic Total Abstinence Union national convention, which adjourned to-day, much to the disappointment of the delegates. Bishop Canevin said, however, that it was coming and he would issue it when it arrives. It was solicited from the Pope by Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, who is now in Europe.

The convention adjourned to-day after passing a number of resolutions, among which was one declaring in favor of the enactment of a law to prevent treating to alcoholic drinks. This habit, it was declared, has done more than anything else to increase the sale of liquor and promote the drinking habit and all the evils which drink causes. The resolutions further called upon members of Catholic societies which serve liquor at their meetings to protest against it and if necessary leave the organization. The custom of serving liquors at banquets and at the family table was condemned. The course of priests who exclude from prominence in church societies and entertainments all who are engaged in the liquor traffic, pasticularly local saloon keepers, was heartily commended.

BLONDE OR BRUNETTE?

Until That's Settled Justice Greenbaum

Won't Sign Divorce Decree. "Blonde or brunette?" is the question now agitating Mrs. Mary E. Spearing. She is not thinking of her own hair, but of that of the woman with whom she believes her husband, Joseph Spearing, to have been flirting.

Mrs. Spearing has begun a suit for divorce, and the action was tried quietly before a referee. All the testimony has been sealed by order of the court, but the referee's report shows that in his opinion Mrs. Spearing's charges are justified. report came up for confirmation a few days ago, and Mrs. Spearing has been momentarily expecting to learn that she will soon be free.

BROOKLYN OARSMEN WIN.

Seawanhakas Carry Off Honors on First

Day of National Regatta. BALTIMORE, Aug. 11.—The thirty-third annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen opened here to-day under circumstances which indicate that this will be one of the most successful events in the history of the association. Along the banks of the Patapsco were thousands who braved the fury of Old Sol, Long Bridge was crowded to its utmost capacity, while the boats along the course grew in such number that the two the course grew in such number that the two United States cutters, the Windom and Guthrie, and the two police boats, under the personal charge of Marshal Farnan, were kept busy keeping the course clear.

The day's sport, taking all into consideration, exceeded the fondest expectations of the course course.

he committee. A few surprises were sprung but the favorites carried off the majority of the events. They had, however, to work hard for their laurels.

In the intermediate eight oared shell race there were but two entries, the Ariel Rowing Club of this city and the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto, Canada. The Baltimore boys looked like sure winners until the buoy was reached, when the Canadians went out like a streak of lightning, crossing the line a length ahead. The Ariel crew protested the race, asserting that their opponents cut the course by not passing the buoy, according to rule.

The honors of the day were carried off by the Seawanhaka Boat Club of Brooklyn. They won the senior four offered shell, the senior pair oared shell, and Fred Shepheard of the same club won the association single sculls.

James A Ten Eyck of the Wachusett. Boat Club of, Worcester experienced but little trouble in winning his heat of the intermediate singles. He outclassed both walter Stokes of the University Barge Club of Philadelphia and Dan McGowan of the Potomacs of Washington. The Mound City Club crew of St. Louis proved a big disappointment in the senior four oared shell event.

Both the Philadelphia pairs threw up the sponge in the senior pair oared shell event. Neither seemed able to keep the course and they finished far behind. In the senior double scull event, however, the Philadelphia Harge Club won after a rattling race with the Nonpareil Rowing Club of New York. The New Yorkers fired toward the fisish and the Quakers cressed the line six lengths in the lead.
